Numb. 457.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From September 8. to September 15. 1737.

NEW-YORK, September 5.

On Tueſday the 30*th of* Auguſt, the General-Aſſembly of this Province met, according to Adjournment, and on the firſt of this Inſtant his Honour the Lieutenant Governor made a SPEECH to them, which is as follows, viz.

GENTLEMEN,

WITH Pleaſure I perceive, by the Reſolves of your Houſe in June, that you did, in your ſhort Sitting of two days, enter in part, upon the Conſideration of the preſent State and Circumſtances of the Province. This early beginning has prevented my recommending ſeveral things to you, and gives me hopes, that the future courſe of your Proceedings will be directed to His Majeſty's Honour, and the true Intereſt of the Province; When they are jointly conſidered, as they ought to be inſeparable, we may promiſe our ſelves the utmoſt Felicity: Every Man's private Intereſt muſt partake of publick Bleſſings: and that ſmall Portion that I have among you, will naturally lead me to grant every Thing that may promote the common Good; Every Thing, I mean, that is in my Power to grant; More than that you are too reaſonable to expect, nor can I give into, without departing from my Duty to His Majeſty, and betraying the Truſt repoſed in me; Nor can you receive any Benefit by it, could I be drawn to ſuch a Conduct, ſince all your Bills are ſubject to His Majeſty's Diſallowance. My Duty, my Honour, and my Inclination bind me both to a ſtrict Obedience of His Majeſty's juſt Commands and Royal Inſtructions, To maintain and ſupport His Rightful Prerogative, and to the proper Adminiſtration and right End of Government, in Protecting His Majeſty's Subjects of this Province in the full Enjoyment of their Civil and Sacred Rights and Liberties; Wherein it ſhall be my conſtant Study and unwearied Endeavour to perſevere.

The Deficiences of the Revenue, under which the Officers of the Government and their Creditors groan, call for your early Attention; and from your Juſtice and Honour I hope to ſee ſpeedy and ample Proviſion made for them.

The well known Loyalty of this Province to the Crown, and their zealous Affection to His preſent Majeſty, the beſt of Kings, and His Royal and Illuſtrious Houſe, have appeared conſpicuous on every Occaſion, and in nothing more than in the Support of Government, which the Aſſemblies have at all times given to His Majeſty; and I aſſure my ſelf, that your Loyalty, Zeal and Affection are nothing ſhort of theirs who have gone before you; in this Confidence I do, with moſt aſſured Hopes of Succeſs, earneſtly recommend to you, to give to His Majeſty a farther and honourable Revenue for the Support of His Government, ſuch and for ſuch Time, at leaſt, as former Aſſemblies have given; wherein I hope, a due Regard will be had to Trade.

The Houſe at Oſwego is in a Ruinous Condition, and wants a preſent and thorough Repair; I daily expect a more particular Account of its preſent Condition, from the Officer whom I have ſent to command there; and when I receive it, I will order it to be laid before you, that you may the better judge of the Sum it will require to repair it. It is a Place of great Importance to the Furr-Trade, which under a better Oeconomy, may be carried to a greater Extent; and I hope, you will make further Proviſion for the Support and Maintenance of the Houſe and Garriſon.

When I went to Albany to meet the Six Nations, I was not without Hopes of getting them to revoke the Promiſe of Leave which they had given to the French Interpreter, to build an Houſe at Tierondequat, in the Sennecas Country, and of obtaining from them an abſolute Conveyance of ſome Land to build a Fort on in that Place, and of as much more as might be ſufficient to raiſe Proviſion for the Victualing that Garriſon and Oſwego too, which would ſave the Country much Money, and ſecure to us the Fidelity of the Six Nations in all Events. How I have ſucceeded in part, and how in other parts my Intentions have been defeated, will appear by the Papers which I ſhall order to be laid before you; All that I could then do, was to ſend the Interpreter, a Smith and three other Men to the Sennecas County, there to reſide the enſuing Year, to keep the Indians ſteady to their Promiſe, not to ſuffer any Frenchman to build in their Country; and I hope you will make ſuitable Proviſion for that Expence.

Fort Hunter in the Mohawks Country is tumbling down; and part of the Barracks in Fort George, which for want of Money was left unfiniſhed, when the reſt of the Barracks were repaired, will ſoon be in as bad a Condition, if ſome care be not ſpeedily taken to repair it; I therefore earneſtly recommend them to your Conſideration; As I do likewiſe the new Fortifications which want the finiſhing hand.

Whatever elſe you may judge neceſſary for the Tranquility, Proſperity and Security of the Province, wherein my Concurrence may be neceſſary, and which I may ſafely give, you may with Confidence expect; for it will be an inexpreſſible Pleaſure to me, to ſee Trade, Navigation, and Ship Building encreaſe and flouriſh; Manufactures that may be uſeful to Great Britain, and beneficial to the Province, ſet on Foot and carried to Perfection; The Country repleniſhed with white People; and a general Benevolence and Harmony take Place again throughout the Province: Theſe are Things that are much wanted and univerſally wiſh'd for, hitherto neglected or not enough thought of, for want of that Publick Spirit which is abſolutely neceſſary to make a Country flouriſh; they are greatly in your Power, and if the good Underſtanding that is happily begun, continues to ſubſiſt between the ſeveral Parts of the Legiſlature, as I hope it will, I make no Doubt, but that the Province will ſoon reap the Fruits of it, and find their Expectations (from the Choice they have made of you their Repreſentatives) fully anſwered, Poſterity feel the happy Effects of it, and we ſhall all recommend our ſelves to His Majeſty's Grace and Favour, who makes the Happineſs of His People His firſt Care and greateſt Glory.

GEO. CLARKE.

From on Board the Mary, Capt. Reed, bound to St. Petersbourg, June 17, 1737.

SIR,

'We are now ſpreading our Canvaſs and leaving 'Gravelend a ſtern of us; Capt. Opie is on Board, and I 'think that in the whole Courſe of my Life I never ſaw 'cleverer Sea Officers than he is taking along with him 'for the Ruſſian Service; he has a jolly Number of them, 'beſides thoſe he ſent over before him at three ſeveral 'Times this Spring. As the Captain had a ſpecial Com-'miſſion from the Empreſs of Ruſſia, to engage Sea Of-'ficers here for her Service, he has diſcharg'd it to Pur-'poſe: He refus'd a great many that offer'd themſelves, 'and I am the meaneſt of the Number he has choſen; 'but as full of Zeal for my Imperial Miſtreſs as any of 'them. If we come to an Engagement in the Black-'Sea, I will endeavour to gain ſome Trophy or other 'from the Turks to ſend you, if it be but Digannium 'Coggia's Head in Pickle. Adieu.

Yours, &c.

LONDON, June 16.

On Thurſday laſt, about Six in the Evening, the Wife, of Mr. Thomas Long, at Limekiln-Hill, Limehouſe, was found barbarouſly murder'd, having a Wound in her Head by a Hammer, which broke thro' the Bone into her Brain, and her Throat cut in ſuch manner, that her Head is almoſt off; her next Neighbour's Child, a Boy about four Years of Age, whom ſhe was fond of, was alſo found by her, murder'd in the ſame Manner. A Man was obſerv'd by the Neighbours to go into her Houſe in the Afternoon, and ſtaid there about two Hours, when he ſent the Child out for a Pennyworth of Cherries, in which time 'tis thought he diſpach'd Mrs Long, by knocking her down with the Hammer which lay on one ſide, and afterwards cutting her Throat; and the Child returning with the Cherries, he knock'd him down, and cut his Throat likewiſe; and ſhutting the Door, went off towards Greenwich.

June 17. Yeſterday the Right Hon. the Earl of Fitzwalter appear'd at St. James's with the White Staff, as Treaſurer of His Majeſty's Houſhold, in the Room of the Lord Delawar, for the firſt time.

Yeſterday in the Afternoon a Man was taken up on Suſpicion, in Goodman's Fields, for the Murder of Mrs. Long at Limekiln-Hill on Friday laſt, he offering to pawn the Ring at a Pawnbroker's.

On Friday in the Day-time, a Girl about five Years old was found ſtript in the Houſe of Counſellor Hollings in Chancery-Lane. Several Workmen were at Work above Stairs, and hearing a Child cry, came down and found this Girl naked, having nothing left on but her Shoes and Stockings? The Child told them a Woman brought her in there, ſtript her, and was run away with her Cloaths.

Laſt Thurſday the Hon. John Campbell, Eſq; one of the Lords of the Admiralty, and Member of Parliament for the County of Pembroke, attended by two Servants on Horſeback, going to his Houſe near Whimbleton, was attack'd on Whimbleton Common by a Single Highwayman, who robb'd him of a Gold Watch and 12 Guineas, and made off towards Putney Bowling-Green.

According to Letters from Dublin, there came in more Wine from Bourdeaux the Week before laſt, than has been known in ſo ſhort a Time ſince the late War, in ſo much that the Duty paid for it in two days, amounted to 18000 l.

The Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms have given Notice to all Owners and Growers of Wool, within ten Miles of the Sea-ſide in Kent and Suſſex, that they give an Account of their Lambs Wool, and enter and diſcharge the ſame according to the Act 9 and 10 Will. III. Cap. 40. and that on Failure or Neglect thereof, all ſuch Lambs Wool will be ſeized. And the like Notice will be give to all within ten Miles of the Sea-Coaſt in England.

Berlin, June 7. O. S. The Jews here are in great Conſternation, the King having declared that he would baniſh them and take away their Effects; and 'tis ſaid there are above 120 Families, who are to leave the Kingdom in eight or ten Days. They add, that the Counteſs de Shulenbourgh, Maid of Honour to the Queen, is ſhortly to marry the Baron d'Arnheim, who has an Eſtate of above 20,000 Crowns a Year.

Hanover, May 30. O. S. There fell ſuch a terrible Storm of Rain and Thunder, that all the lower Ward was under Water, and two large Buildings, half a League from the Town were reduced to Aſhes by Lightning; whereby a Life-Guard Man was kill'd on the Spot with his Horſe, and a great deal of other Damage done.

Dantzick, June 3. Almoſt one half of Wilna the Capital City of Lithuana, has been reduced to Aſhes by Fire; and that amongſt other Buildings that were conſumed are five Convents, and ſeveral Palaces.

London, June 18. They write from Belgrade, that a Foreign Miniſter was lately aſſaſſinated in the open Street, by their High Mightineſſes the Mahometan Mob of Conſtantinople.

And from Naples, that King Carlos had hid himſelf in a Convent, not daring to ſtir Abroad till Mount Veſuvius is brought into a better Temper.

By the Holland Mail juſt arrived, we learn, that the Czarina deſigns to diſpoſe of the Dutchy of Courland, in the ſame Manner as ſhe did of the Crown of Poland; and that in Order to force the Inhabitants to accept of one of the three Candidates which ſhe recommends, her Troops are eſtabliſhing themſelves in the aforeſaid Dutchy. The three Candidates are, the Prince of Heſſe Caſſel, the Prince of Heſſe Homburge, and Count Biron. The King of Pruſſia, in order to oppoſe this, has ordered a conſiderable Number of Men towards the Frontiers, and from thence we borrow the Reaſon of the backwardneſs of the Ruſſians in attacking the Turks; but the Grand Vizir unwilling to wait any longer is marching in all haſte to give Battle to Count Munich; we may likewiſe expect ſome bloody Action on the ſide of Hungary, the Imperial Army being already aſſembled, and the Duke of Lorrain and all the other General Officers are gone to take upon them their reſpective Commands.

This Morning was ſhip'd for the Weſt-Indies 20,000 wt. of Gunpowder; for New-York 1000 Ells of Sail Cloth; and 500 wt. of Gunpowder.

June 21. All Europe was ſurprized at the long Inactivity of the Ruſſians at a Time they had ſuch a fair Opportunity of falling with Advantage upon the Turks; but Letters from Petersburgh, by the Flanders Mail arrived Yeſterday, clear up this Point, by telling us that all the Parties were kept quiet by a Suſpenſion of Arms, which as it expired the 16th Inſtant, N. S. without any great Advances towards an Accommodation, the Armies are in Motion in Ukrania and Hungary, and we may expect to hear of ſome bloody Battle. Never was ſeen ſo great an Appearance of Men of War and Gallies on the Danube as at preſent, neither do we read in Hiſtory of any ſuch Quantity of Military Stores having been ſent to Hungary. A Bridge was built over the Danube for the Paſſage of the Troops that are to rendezvous at Vapalanca. The Van of Count Munich's Army is already arrived within Cannon reach of Oczakow, to the great Terror of the Ottoman Garriſon; and the Renagado Bonneval is forming an Army in Boſnia, to oppoſe any Attempts which the Germans make on that Province: But notwithſtanding this mighty Buſtle, 'tis thought the War will be ſoon over; and hence it is, that the Venetians will not embark in it, becauſe they could not have Time enough to make ſuch Conqueſts as would anſwer their Expences: the Emperor is ſomewhat jealous of the French, 6000 of whom have advanced unexpectedly as far as Feneſtrella, on the Confines of Savoy, and are to be quickly follow'd by a much larger Body.

They write from Vienna, that they have received a Confirmation, that the Turks had begun Hoſtilities, and cut to Pieces or taken 200 Imperialiſts in Croatia. 'Tis ſaid, that the Court of Vienna has receiv'd an Account that the Turks have attack'd ſeveral other Detachments on the Frontiers of that Province, and looks upon thoſe Hoſtilities as an open Rupture and glaring Infraction of the Treaty of Paſſarowitz.

London, July 5. Extract of a private Letter from the Hague.

Every thing tends towards freſh Diſturbances from many Quarters, as will be perceiv'd by the following Contents. It's now known with much certainty, that the Motive of Mr. Horace Walpole's Journey to Paris is rather to prevent certain Meaſures that are taking which may prove prejudicial to the Commerce of England, than to concern himſelf himſelf in the Affairs of Juliers and Bergue. The Court of Great Britain has diſcover'd, that there is negociating between the Kings of France, Spain, and Portugal, a particular Alliance, the Scope and Deſign of which is entirely to prejudice his Portugueſe Majeſty to the Britiſh Nation. Intelligence from good Hands ſay, that for this Effect the Court of Madrid has propos'd to that of Lisbon, that ſhe would yield to the King of Portugal ſeveral Places in the Weſt-Indies, the Right of which is, at preſent in Conteſt; and that ſhe would grant all poſſible Advantages to the Portugueſe, in order to enable them to carry on a Commerce in the Poſſeſſions of his Catholick Majeſty, provided that his Portugueſe Majeſty would no longer ſuffer the Engliſh to trade to the Brazils. The King of Portugal ſeems but too much to hearken to this Propoſition; and as Spain endeavours to engage France in this Affair, Mr. Walpole's going to Paris is in order to prevent the Execution of it. Mr. Trevor has communicated the whole of this Contrivance to the Grand Penſionary, and told him, that if a Negociation like this ſhould ſucceed, great Diſadvantages would accrue therefrom to the Dutch, as well as to the Engliſh, and that of conſequence it was the Intereſt of their High Mightineſſes to join with the King his Maſter to hinder it from taking Effect. A Letter that the States-General have receiv'd from M Van Til, their Miniſter at Lisbon, ſeems to confirm what has been related. He takes notice, that ſome important Buſineſs is carrying on between the Court of Portugal and that of Spain, wherein France is compris'd; ſince in leſs than a Fortnight three Couriers have been ſent from Lisbon to Madrid, and two to Paris; and in that time there have been two ſent to the Court of Portugal from Don Lewis d'Acunha, its Ambaſſador to the Court of France. M. Van Til adds, My Lord Tyrawley, Miniſter of Great Britain, came on purpoſe to let me know, that he had good Grounds to ſuſpect ſomething was carrying on which would prove diſadvantageous to the Maritime Powers, and that Endeavours were uſing to break the good Intelligence there was between the King of Portugal and the King of Great Britain.

The 6000 French Troops which are arriv'd on the Frontiers of Dauphine, ſome ſay, were only ſent there to put a ſtop to certain violent Steps that the King of Sardinia was going to take, in relation to a Diſtrict contiguous to his Territories, in which the Magiſtrates refus'd to conform to the Orders of this Prince: Nevertheleſs ſome Advices aſſure us, that there is ſomething more than this in the March of thoſe Troops, and that they were ſent there at the Requeſt of the Emperor.

From Belgrade, that the Duke of Lorrain was ſafely arriv'd there with Prince Charles his Brother, and was receiv'd by Count Seckendorff and the reſt of the General Officers with the Honours which were due to them.

From Turky and from Perſia by way Venice, that the Treaty of Peace concluded between the Grand Signior and Thamas Kouli Kan has been ratified ever ſince December laſt, ſo that all the Reports to the contrary are falſe.

From Leghorn Letters from Corſica ſay that the Genoeſe Garriſon in Ajaccio has found means to ſurprize the Tower of Fazanna, which covers a conſiderable Diſtrict of cultivated Land, the Product of which they have deſtroyed to prevent the Malecontents from receiving any Benefit therefrom. The Capt. of an Engliſh Ship lately arriv'd from Barbary reports, that the Ships of Tunis and Algiers, that block'd up the City of Suza, in which the old Bey of Tunis was ſhut up, had rais'd the Blockade and made off with all Expedition upon the Approach of the Squadron of two Men of War and four Galleys from Malta, which the Grand Maſter had ſent to the Succour of the depos'd Bey.
